

Hand-out One-Respect

List four people you respect:

1.

a.

b.

2.

a.

b.

3.

a.

b.

4.

a.

b.

Below each name list 2 qualities they have that you respect.

Is there any qualities they have in common?

Why do you respect these qualities:

Hand-out Two-Respect

Is the way you show respect toward some individuals or groups different from the way you show respect to other individuals and groups?

Is respect different from admiration, appreciation, and popularity? How so? Can you respect people and not like them? Why or why not? If you disagree with someone can you still show respect toward them? How?

Is everyone entitled to be treated respectfully, regardless of what they do? Are there people you automatically respect? Does everyone have to earn your respect, regardless of age, position, and status? Or does everyone start out getting your respect, but earn the privilege of keeping it? Please explain your answer.

What are three ways that teachers can show respect toward students?

What are three ways that students can show respect toward teachers?

What does "Give respect to get respect" mean to you?

Can you teach respect? Who or why not? If you can, how do people learn to be respectful?

In what situations is it hardest for you to be respectful?

What might be three good reasons to be respectful to people you don't like or who don't like you?